

Where the Visual Becomes the Verbal

The Swimming Club by Hannie Rayson

Audio Description performance
Saturday 17 April, 2.15pm, Playhouse Theatre

Ladies and Gentleman the opportunity to purchase Audio Description tickets for Black Swan State Theatre Company's presentation of The Swimming Club will close on Monday 12 April.

Six young people from around the world, including two UWA students, spend one glorious summer together on a Greek island in 1983. They are beautiful, adventurous, idealistic and believe that the world is theirs for the taking.

Fast-forward to 2009. These footloose and fancy-free types have turned into successful and driven people who are juggling careers, families and mortgages and are grappling with middle age. Each in their own way, they feel trapped by their life choices and are baffled by their children's youth culture in the new millennium. Will a reunion on their magical Greek island be able to rekindle their spiritual fire?

Cast: Tina Bursill, Caroline Gillmer, Megan Holloway, Nicholas Papademetriou, Angela Punch McGregor, Igor Sas and John Waters.

Director: Kate Cherry

Duration: approx 2 hours 20 minutes (including one interval)

Warning: Contains strong language and adult themes

The Swimming Club is a co-production with Melbourne Theatre Company.

Tickets for audio described performances are available through BOCS Ticketing on 9484 1133. It is essential patrons advise the booking agent that the audio described service will be required at time of booking. Groups may also contact Christine Burns or Elizabeth Hollywood on 9238 9554 or at groups@bocsticketing.com.au Tickets for the service can be purchased up to five working days prior to the performance, after which audio described seats which have not been sold will be released to the general public. Patrons are requested to arrive at least 30 minutes prior to the performance in order to collect their equipment and be comfortably seated until the audio description commences.

For further information regarding the Audio Description Service, or to add your name to our database to receive show updates please contact Alice Jorgensen on 08 9265 0934 or email ad@aegogdenperth.com.au

For further information or interviews regarding Black Swan State Theatre Company performances please contact Nancy Hackett on 08 6389 0311 (for direct line press 4 then 1 at voice prompts) or nancy@bsstc.com.au